Welcome to Michael Volk's Photography Studio! Where you can discover my new passion for photography. I have learned many different things in my studies at Algonquin College! Here you will look at my material, learn about me and what I like to do in my spare time! I promise to give you the best quality photography that you will instantly enjoy.

About the creator!

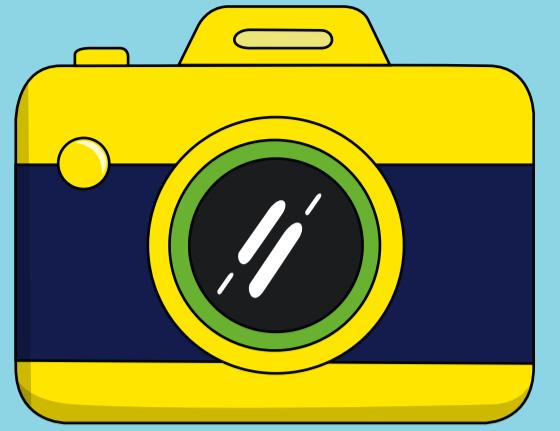

My name is Michael Volk. I am a 21 year old student from Ottawa, Ontario who currently attends Algonquin College in the Interactive Media & Design program. I have excellent attention to detail skills and am extremely hard working.

I am a spokesperson for Autism Awareness as I am on the autism spectrum. Taking photos has always been a hobby, but my interest grew after taking a class at Algonquin, which made me explore more elements of photography. I will always do my best to give my clients the most Satisfaction in my products.
